THEIR FIERCE CHARGES REPULSED WITH LOSSES

Rome Says the Italians Drove the Austrians Back in Their Desperate Attacks With Heavy Losses to the Attackers—The French Took Some Strongly Fortified Positions From the Germans North of the Somme River and Berlin Acknowledges the Destruction of German Trenches—The British Made Some Gains and the Germans Captured a Hill in the Verdun Region.

(By Associated Press.)

London, August 2.—North of the Somme river last night the French took some powerfully fortified works between Hamwood and Monacu farm, Paris officially announced.

On the right bank of the Meuse north of Verdun, there was a violent series of engagements throughout the night, extending east as far as Dam-loup. After a series of attacks, which asphyxiating gas was used, the Germans gained a little ground in Oen-tire Wood and at Chenels.

Further progress by the British troops east of Poselieres in the Somme river region, was announced.

The German statement today on the road between Marliourt and Clery in the Somme region the French penetrated "Tours and completely demolished the trenches."

The Germans captured a hill east of Souville, in the Verdun region. The Austrians suffered a severe defeat in Monday's engagement in Stoua valley, with the Italians, when their attacks were repulsed with heavy losses to the attackers, the Rome statement says.

LEW REGULATING "SPITE FENCES"

City Commission in Dallas Passes Law Which Reads Fences Between Gardens Must Not Be 6 Ft.

(By Associated Press.)
Dallas, Texas, August 1.—"Spite fences"—those barriers erected to keep one's neighbor's chickens or children from one's garden—can not be built in Dallas more than five feet eleven and one-half inches in height. To build them six feet will incur a penalty of not less than $200.

This new law was passed by the city commission recently, which raised the limit from five to six feet. The "spite fence" for as such it is known, may be erected only to the rear line of any building on a street, the law provides.

State Board of Education Allows Seven Dollars Each for Public School Children for Coming Term.

(By Associated Press.)
Austin, August 2.—The State Board of Education today fixed the State per capita apportionment for the coming year at seven dollars per pupil. This is considered high by several members of the educational board.

FORTY-ONE DIED MANY NEW CASES

There is Still No Checking Infantile Paralysis Epidemic in New York City It Seems.

(By Associated Press.)
New York, August 2.—Forty-one children have died and one hundred and sixty have been stricken with infantile paralysis in the last twenty-four hours. It seems that all efforts to quell the dreaded disease are futile. The extreme hot weather is having much to do with the large number of deaths.

LARGER HOSPITAL AT FORT M'INTOSH

If Plans That Have Been Drawn Are Carried to Completion Base Hospital to Care for 1000 Will Be Built.

(By Associated Press.)
Laredo, Texas, August 1.—Plans have been perfected for the enlargement of the hospital at Fort McIntosh here, and if carried to completion, will mean the establishment of a base hospital with a capacity of 1000 or more sick or wounded soldiers at one time.

The present hospital at Fort McIntosh has a capacity of not in excess of half a hundred. Additional buildings are contemplated which will provide for the treatment of a large number of soldiers.

DEFEAT INDICATED LITERACY TEST

Belated Returns in Oklahoma Primaries Indicate Defeat of Proposed Amendment to Constitution.

(By Associated Press.)
Oklahoma City, August 2.—Belated returns which are being received today from yesterday's primary indicate the defeat of the proposed Literacy Test amendment to the State Constitution. Many State officials believed that it would carry.

WILSON'S VIEWS ARE NOT CHANGED

Statement Issued From White House That President Has Not Changed Views on Woman Suffrage.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, August 2.—A statement issued from the White House today was to the effect that President Wilson had not changed his views on the woman suffrage question. The President believes this is a matter for each State to deal with separately as they see fit. This was occasioned by the announcement yesterday that Col. Hughes, the Republican candidate for President, favored a suffrage amendment to the Federal Constitution.
